ORAL JUDGEMENT

Perused the special civil application.

2. The petitioners, who are working as casual labourers in the establishment of Railway Administration, filed this special civil application before this Court and challenge has been made to the action of the respondents in terminating their services.

3. As it is a service matter of the employees of Railway administration and as such after coming into force of the Central Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985, this petition is not maintainable before this Court.

4. The office is directed to remit the papers of this special civil application forthwith to the Central Administrative Tribunal Bench at Ahmedabad and in the computer this petition may be shown to be disposed of. The special civil application and rule stand disposed of accordingly.
